

The Macomb Heritage Days Celebration takes place June 27-30, 2024 with the Bob Anstine Memorial Parade beginning promptly at 10:00 am on Saturday, June 29.

This year's Heritage Days theme is "Celebrating Macomb's Lizzie Magie and her invention: Monopoly." Heritage Days was started in 1982 by former Mayor Bob Anstine to celebrate the heritage of Macomb.

The committee invites all local businesses, non-profit organizations, service clubs and community members to build their own floats and enter the parade. Political organizations are also welcome to participate.

Parade entries are due no later than Friday, June 14. Late entries will be located at the back of the parade.

Each parade participant must have walkers to distribute candy to the spectators. Groups seen throwing candy from vehicles will not be allowed to participate in the future.
